A Company built a new warehouse on a parcel of land the Company purchased in January of 2018. Construction began in March of 2018 and the building was completed on September 30, 2018. On Schedule 15OP, the Company reports $1 million dollars of cost for the land and $2 million dollars of cost for the new warehouse building's. The new warehouse building's $2 million dollars of original cost is also reported on Schedule 14, Line 17 as NCI. The company reports no CWIP as of 1/1/2019.

Example 2 of New Construction and Improvements and Construction Work in Progress

A Company is building a new gas-fired power generating unit at its existing power plant location. Construction will take nearly two years to complete at an estimated $11 million total project cost. Planning and preliminary work for the project began in 2016. The company has no Tangible Personal Property and, therefore, reports no CWIP as of 1/1/2017. Construction materials were brought on site in January of 2017 and construction began in February of 2017. The company reports $3 million original cost of CWIP as of 1/1/2018 and $3 million NCI on the 2018 Schedule 14 Page 1, Line 17.

The company reports $7.5 million original cost of CWIP as of 1/1/2019, and $4.5 million NCI on the 2019 Schedule 14 Page 1, Line 17.

In 2019, there is $3 million of CWIP that was declared as NCI in 2018 and cannot be declared again as NCI in 2019. The $4.5 million represents the amount of NCI for tax year 2019. The Company has entered all of the CWIP as real property on the 2019 Schedule 14 Page 1, Line 3.

Duties of County Clerks

- County Clerks report the assessed value for NCI to the State Auditor's Office.
- When a CWIP project goes into service and is part of the distributable unit, there is no way to predict the impact on the assessed value of the taxing jurisdiction and any potential change in revenue.
- County Clerks should include an additional advisory to taxing jurisdictions that the assessed value for CWIP and/or NCI should not be included as a recurring source of revenue – but should be treated as “One-Time” revenue

Slide 6 County Clerk's Duties

- County Clerks report the assessed value for NCI to the State Auditor's Office.
- When a CWIP project goes into service and is part of the distributable unit, there is no way to predict the impact on the assessed value of the taxing jurisdiction and any potential change in revenue.
- County Clerks should include an additional advisory to taxing jurisdictions that the assessed value for CWIP and/or NCI should not be included as a recurring source of revenue – but should be treated as “One-Time” revenue.

Example: A County Clerk might suggest to the taxing jurisdictions that the amount of incremental revenue received from CWIP could be used for one-time expenses such as replacing a roof.
