DECISION AND ORDER

Jesse Miller (Complainant) appealed valuation of the subject personal property determined by Gail McCann Beatty, Assessor, Jackson County, Missouri (Respondent). Complainant did not appeal to the Jackson County Board of Equalization (BOE), but appealed directly to the State Tax Commission (STC) after receiving first notification of the valuation upon receiving the 2022 tax bill. Respondent determined assessed value of $20,600. Complainant claimed overvaluation but did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence establishing overvaluation.¹ Complainant did not appear at the hearing. Respondent was represented at the hearing by counsel, Jennifer Ware. Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence to support the asserted claim of overvaluation. The assessment of Respondent is affirmed.

Facts

The evidentiary hearing was held on August 8, 2023. Respondent appeared at the evidentiary hearing. Complainant did not appear or request a continuance of the hearing.

Complainant Did Not Prove Overvaluation

The taxpayer bears the burden of proof and must show by a preponderance of the evidence that the property was overvalued. Westwood P'ship v. Gogarty, 103 S.W.3d 152, 161 (Mo. App. E.D. 2003). Complainant did not appear at the evidentiary hearing and produced no evidence admitted into the record to support the overvaluation claim. Complainant's failure to appear and to present any evidence necessarily means Complainant fails to meet Complainant's burden of proof. ²

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

The assessment made by the Respondent is affirmed. The subject property was properly assessed at $20,600 as of January 1, 2022, classified as personal property.
