DECISION AND ORDER

Oscar Pineda Madrid (Complainant) appealed valuation of the subject residential real property determined by Travis Welge, Assessor, St. Charles County, Missouri (Respondent). Respondent valued the property in 23-32542 at $362,936 and in 23-32543 at $375,942. Complainant appealed to the St. Charles County Board of Equalization (BOE). The BOE independently determined the value of the properties to be the same as that determined by the Assessor and did not make any change in the value of the property. Complainant then appealed to the State Tax Commission (STC). Complainant claimed overvaluation but did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence establishing overvaluation.¹ Complainant did not appear at the hearing. Respondent was represented at the hearing by counsel, Michael Mueth.

Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence to support the asserted claim of overvaluation. The assessment of Respondent is affirmed.

Facts

The evidentiary hearing was held on August 13, 2024. Respondent appeared at the evidentiary hearing and was represented by counsel. Complainant did not appear or request a continuance of the hearing.

Complainant Did Not Prove Overvaluation

The taxpayer bears the burden of proof and must show by a preponderance of the evidence that the property was overvalued. Westwood P'ship v. Gogarty, 103 S.W.3d 152, 161 (Mo. App. E.D. 2003). Complainant did not appear at the evidentiary hearing and produced no evidence admitted into the record to support the overvaluation claim. Complainant's failure to appear and to present any evidence necessarily means Complainant fails to meet Complainant's burden of proof. ²

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

The assessment made by the BOE is affirmed, valuing the property in 23-32542 at $362,936 and in 23-32543 at $375,942 as of January 1, 2023, classified as residential property.

² For over 150 years, Missouri law has recognized the self-evident proposition that "if there be no evidence sufficient in law to make a prima facie case on this issue, plaintiff cannot be entitled to recover." Callahan v. Warne, 40 Mo. 131, 135 (Mo. 1867).

Application for Review

A party may file with the State Tax Commission an application for review of this decision within 30 days of the mailing date set forth in the certificate of service for this decision. The application "shall contain specific detailed grounds upon which it is claimed the decision is erroneous." Section 138.432 R.S.Mo. The application must be in writing, and may be mailed to the State Tax Commission, P.O. Box 146, Jefferson City, MO 65102-0146, or emailed to Legal@stc.mo.gov. A copy of the application must be sent to each person listed below in the certificate of service.

Failure to state specific facts or law upon which the application for review is based will result in summary denial. Section 138.432 R.S.Mo.

Disputed Taxes

The Collector of the St. Charles County, as well as the collectors of all affected political subdivisions therein, shall continue to hold the disputed taxes pending the possible filing of an application for review, unless said taxes have been disbursed pursuant to a court order under the provisions of section 139.031.
