Topic: Leased Company Investigations Discussion per Section 138.235.2, RSMo

Motion(s)/Comments: SJ discussed the requirements of Section 138.235.2, RSMo, and an audit recommendation from the agency's most recent audit to implement a practice to comply with statute which provides the STC shall investigate companies which have tangible personal property for lease or companies which lease tangible personal property in order to cause the property to be properly taxed within the state. SJ also presented a memo drafted by the managers for this statute. The potential implementation would be the STC distributing the draft letter to assessors annually and investigate any companies that were reported by the assessors. The Commission discussed the implementation and the draft letter. DM made a motion to distribute the draft letter to county assessors in March each year beginning in 2026. GAR seconded the motion.
