DECISION AND ORDER

Nikolas Swider (Complainant) appeals the St. Louis County Board of Equalization's (Respondent) decision valuing the subject residential property at $379,000 as of January 1, 2024.¹ Complainant alleges overvaluation and asserts the true value in money (TVM) of the subject property was $350,000 as of the assessment date. Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence establishing overvaluation. The BOE decision is affirmed. The TVM of the subject property as of January 1, 2024, is $379,000.

The evidentiary hearing was held July 23, 2025, via Webex. Julie Swider, co-owner of the property, appeared pro se. Respondent Jake Zimmerman, Assessor, St. Louis

¹ Complainant timely filed a complaint for review of assessment. The State Tax Commission (STC) has authority to hear and decide Complainant's appeal. Mo. Const. art. X, sec. 14; Section 138.430.1, RSMo 2000. All statutory citations are to RSMo 2000, as amended.

County, Missouri, was represented by counsel, Kevin Wyatt. The case was heard and decided by Senior Hearing Officer Benjamin C. Slawson.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Subject Property. The subject residential property consists of a single-family home located at 5389 Royalfield Dr., Saint Louis County, Missouri. The Parcel ID number is 31K610265.

2. Assessment and Valuation. Respondent determined the subject property's appraised value was $405,800 as of January 1, 2024. The BOE independently determined that the subject's appraised value as of January 1, 2024, was $379,000.

3. Complainant's Evidence. Complainant offered the following exhibits which were admitted without objection from Respondent:

Exhibit	Description
Email	July 22, 2025, email containing arguments for overvaluation and pictures of the subject.

Julie Swider, co-owner of the property, testified for Complainant. Ms. Swider testified that she believes the property to be overvalued by Respondent because the comparables Respondent used were newer and had updated features. She testified that the subject's basement is unfinished. There was a crack in the foundation and the basement suffered water damage. The basement's drywall was removed and therefore the basement is unfinished. Ms. Swider stated that the floors on the main level are very worn, and the bathrooms are old and not updated. She testified that no updates have been made to the subject since the 1990s. Complainant believes the assessment of the subject is not in line with other homes in the area. Complainant presented these issues to the BOE who reduced the assessment from Respondent's original value of $405,800 to $379,000. Complainant is not a licensed appraiser.

4. Respondent's Evidence. Respondent introduced Exhibit 1, consisting of the September 13, 2024, BOE decision letter for the subject property. Exhibit 1 shows the BOE valued the subject property at $379,000. The Exhibit was admitted into the record without objection.

5. Value. The TVM of the subject property as of January 1, 2024, was $379,000.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Assessment and Valuation. Residential real property is assessed at 19% of its TVM as of January 1 of each odd-numbered year. Sections 137.115.1; 137.115.5(1)(a). The TVM is "the fair market value of the property on the valuation date[.]" Snider v. Casino Aztar/Aztar Mo. Gaming Corp., 156 S.W.3d 341, 346 (Mo. banc 2005) (internal quotation omitted). The fair market value is "the price which the property would bring from a willing buyer when offered for sale by a willing seller." Mo. Baptist Children's Home v. State Tax Comm'n, 867 S.W.2d 510, 512 (Mo. banc 1993). "True value in money is defined in terms of value in exchange not value in use." Tibbs v. Poplar Bluff Assocs. I, L.P., 599 S.W.3d 1, 7 (Mo. App. S.D. 2020) (internal quotation omitted). The TVM "is a function of [the property's] highest and best use[.]" Snider, 156 S.W.3d at 346. "Determining the true value in money is an issue of fact for the STC." Cohen v. Bushmeyer, 251 S.W.3d 345, 348 (Mo. App. E.D. 2008).

"For purposes of levying property taxes, the value of real property is typically determined using one or more of three generally accepted approaches." Snider, 156 S.W.3d at 346. The three generally accepted approaches are the cost approach, the income approach, and the comparable sales approach. Id. at 346-48. The STC has wide discretion in selecting the appropriate valuation method but "cannot base its decision on opinion evidence that fails to consider information that should have been considered under a particular valuation approach." Id., at 348.

The comparable sales approach "is most appropriate when there is an active market for the type of property at issue such that sufficient data are available to make a comparative analysis." Snider, 156 S.W.3d at 348. For this reason, the comparable sales approach is typically used to value residential property. "The comparable sales approach uses prices paid for similar properties in arms-length transactions and adjusts those prices to account for differences between the properties." Id. at 347-48 (internal quotation omitted). "Comparable sales consist of evidence of sales reasonably related in time and distance and involve land comparable in character." Id. at 348.

2. Evidence. The hearing officer is the finder of fact and determines the credibility and weight of the evidence. Kelly v. Mo. Dep't of Soc. Servs., Family Support Div., 456 S.W.3d 107, 111 (Mo. App. W.D. 2015). "Although technical rules of evidence are not controlling in administrative hearings, fundamental rules of evidence are applicable." Mo. Church of Scientology v. State Tax Comm'n, 560 S.W.2d 837, 839 (Mo. banc 1977).

3. Complainant's Burden of Proof. The taxpayer bears the burden of proof and must show by a preponderance of the evidence the property is overvalued. Westwood

P'ship v. Gogarty, 103 S.W.3d 152, 161 (Mo. App. E.D. 2003). The BOE's valuation is presumptively correct. Tibbs, 599 S.W.3d at 7. The "taxpayer may rebut this presumption by presenting substantial and persuasive evidence that the valuation is erroneous." Id. (internal quotation omitted). The taxpayer also must prove "the value that should have been placed on the property" on the assessment date. Id. See also Hermel, Inc. v. State Tax Commission, 564 S.W.2d 888, 897 (Mo. banc 1978). "Substantial evidence is that evidence which, if true, has probative force upon the issues, and from which the trier of fact can reasonably decide the case on the fact issues." Savage v. State Tax Comm'n, 722 S.W.2d 72, 77 (Mo. banc 1986) (internal quotation omitted). Evidence is persuasive when it has "sufficient weight and probative value to convince the trier of fact." Daly v. P.D. George Co., 77 S.W.3d 645, 651 (Mo. App. E.D. 2002); see also White v. Dir. of Revenue, 321 S.W.3d 298, 305 (Mo. banc 2010) (noting the burden of persuasion is the "party's duty to convince the fact-finder to view the facts in a way that favors that party").

Property owners are competent to testify to the reasonable fair market value of their property. Cohen, 251 S.W.3d at 348. However, if owner's testimony is based on "improper elements or an improper foundation[.]" it is not substantial and persuasive evidence rebutting the presumptively correct BOE value. Id. at 349.

3. Complainant Did Not Produce Substantial and Persuasive Evidence of Overvaluation.

Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence to support Complainant's $350,000 opinion of value. Complainant introduced no evidence pertaining to a recognized valuation method. Complainant did not produce any evidence supporting a comparable sales approach, income approach, or cost approach.

The comparable sales approach is typically used to value residential properties improved with a single-family home like the subject. “The comparable sales approach uses prices paid for similar properties in arms-length transactions and adjusts those prices to account for differences between the properties.” Snider, 156 S.W.3d at 347-48 (internal quotation omitted). Complainant did not offer testimony of an appraiser, nor an appraisal of the property as evidence of the TVM of the property as of January 1, 2024. Therefore, Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence showing that the subject property was overvalued based on independent comparable sales data.

Ms. Swider testified that the unfinished basement, deferred maintenance, and the lack of updates present in other comparable properties negatively affect the value of the subject. However, Complainant offered no evidence actually quantifying alleged adverse value these would have (if any) on the value of the subject as of January 1, 2024. In other words, Complainant offered no professional analysis completed by someone trained to analyze condition issues or outdated features of the subject to show the deleterious effect they had on the property on the relevant tax date, January 1, 2024. As a non-professional in the appraisal industry, Complainant’s lay opinion is speculative and not persuasive.

In order to prove overvaluation, the taxpayer must not only prove that the assessment is erroneous, but must also must prove "the value that should have been placed on the property" on the assessment date. Hermel, Inc. v. State Tax Commission, 564 S.W.2d 888, 897 (Mo. banc 1978). Emphasis added. Complainant did not produce substantial and persuasive evidence showing that the BOE's value was incorrect, nor did Complainant prove the TVM on the assessment date. Property owners are competent to testify to the reasonable fair market value of their property. Cohen, 251 S.W.3d at 348. However, if owner's testimony is based on "improper elements or an improper foundation[,] " it is not substantial and persuasive evidence rebutting the presumptively correct BOE value. Id. at 349. Because the STC "cannot base its decision on opinion evidence that fails to consider information that should have been considered" under a recognized approach to value, Snider, 156 S.W.3d at 348, the BOE decision is affirmed.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

The BOE decision is affirmed. The TVM of the subject property as of January 1, 2024, is $379,000.
